*****

The Fundación Manuel Giménez Abad de Estudios Parlamentarios y del Estado Autonómico, Spain, and the Center for European Strategic Research (CESR), Italy, hereinafter referred to as "The Parties" decided to sign this Memorandum of Understanding for purposes of furthering mutually beneficial cooperation and exchanging information and views relevant to international relations, foreign policy, global and regional security as well as international political, economic, and cultural development.

Article 1

The Parties agree to maintain an active exchange of information about their activities.

Article 2

Cooperation under this Memorandum may include:

- 1) Promotion and support for the exchange of visits of scientists, research interns and lecturers;
- 2) Co-organization of bilateral seminars, symposiums and panel discussions on regional and global issues of common interest;
- 3) Exchange of publications;
- 4) Other forms of cooperation as may be agreed upon by both Parties through consultations.

Article 3 - Expenses

Covering of expenses will be mutually agreed upon based on every single activity. Generally, the costs shall be shared on the basis of reciprocity if otherwise not agreed upon by some prior arrangements.

Article 4 - Others

Other issues not covered in this Memorandum shall be decided through mutual consultation between the parties.

Article 5 - Validity

The Memorandum shall come into effect from the date of its signature and shall continue to be in force until either Party notifies the other in writing of its intention to terminate the MoU six months prior to the date of termination. Such termination would not prejudice the completion of work already undertaken. This Memorandum of Understanding may be amended by mutual agreement whenever necessary.

Signed in Zaragoza, Spain, on the 24th February in the year 2015 in three originals in English.
